We had the pleasure of an introduction on Saturday to Hiram Atchisson, a brother of Cap. Chas. Atchisson. We understand that Mr. Atchesion has come to take up his permanent residence among us. We welsome him heartily to Mineral Park.

The partnership heretofore existing between Mesers, A. E. Davis and Eb. Williams has this day been dissolved. Mr. Davis will be absent temporarily, and such business as has been entrusted to them as a law firm, will be concluded by the under-En. WILLIAMS. Nov. 15, 1884.

A. E. Davis writes us from Kingman to enquire if the Democrats display so many roosters in their paper because they think Cieveland is a fowl man."

We reply that we believe history provethat for all time the present Democratic party and its succestors have been a fowl party, as we remember hearing when a boy Whig sung the refrain of which was "Come out from among the fowl party and vote for old Tippeninos."

We have had a pleasant visit from Father E. V. Lebreton, the priest in charge at We regret that his engagements obliged the father to make his visit so short. He could remain only twenty-four hours; but, during that time he became soquainted with many of our citizens and left schind him a favorable impression. During his stay here he celebrated mass, in the ence of quite a number of persons of Catholic personsion who reside in this vicinity. The services were held the house of Mr. Anson H. Smith. We wish the father success in his immediate mission which, we understand, is the collection of money to build a church in Pressott. There is now at Logan's carral the most superb piece of horse flosh that we have seen many a day. The animal is a four-yearold Morgan and Massauger filly, of an apple or chestaut color stateen and a half hands high, weighs fully 1,300 pounds and is a model in build, and although unbroken and untrained is easy and graceful in action.

She was fooled at the ranch of Mr. G. Cornell in this county, where she has been kept until now. This fine animal is the property of Mass Lottie Davis, daughter of A. E. Davis.

Mr Davis will ship the mare by the cars to his rauch in Los Angeles County.

Taggart & Co. have just received from the coat a lot of 30 and 34 inch blacksmith's bellows also anvils, which they will sell chesp, if applied for soon.
